VOICE

Life was blind to me now it's kind to me Love has o-pened my eyes
I keep won-der-ing is he blun-der-ing Call-ing me his i - deal?

p a tempo

Since it came to me life's a game to me With the sweet-est sur - prise
In this scheme of things who could dream of things Just too good to be real?

poco rall.

I nev-er knew how good it was to be A slave to one who means the world to me
I know I'll soon a - wake to find him gone So I must love him while the dream is on

CHORUS

I loved that man from the start And 'way down deep in his heart I know he

p - f

loves me Heav - en knows why! ___ And when he tells me he can't live with - out me What Would - n't I Do ___ For That Man! ___ He's not an an - gel or saint ___ And what's the odds if he ain't? ___ With all his faults I know we'll get by I'll be so true to him he'll nev-er doubt me What Would-n't I Do For That Man! If I could on-ly rest my wear-y head on his shoul-der I'd close my eyes right there and wish I'd nev-er grow old - - er I'll nev-er leave him a - lone I'll make his troub-les my own I'll love that man like no - bod-y can I'm just "no

He must be good" when his arms are a - bout me What Would-n't I Do For That mad to be cra - zy a - bout me

Man! Oh! What Would-n't I Do For That Man! I loved that Man!
